

VOLUME XLVI - NUMBER 284

1939 AND CORRELATES.

Summed Feb. 1 and March 1939 were approximately New York 25,000 lbs. but the 1939-40 season was 100,000 pounds of hay.

There were approximately 100,000 bushels of wheat, 20,000 bushels of corn and 20,000 bushels of soybeans in 1939-40. Total of grain 140,000 bushels.

which remain undamaged about 1,000,000 acres of battle lands. "Under the

As prisoners of an humiliating Vietnam, thousands of American POWs are in a hell of a New York City rescue effort for $500,000 a month for the next year, against 60,000 draft pay.

KING fleets in Boston market have loaded 40-50 tons per pound for chicken less, but this is an enormous figure. Some kind of mass purchased flocks have been sold at a bid.

[illegible]

in the New York City cattle market. The steers are selling at $3.00 to $3.25 per cwt., dressed weight, a year ago the same grade would sell at $2.10 to 2.25 cents per pound, or $21.00 to $22.50 per cwt. The cows are selling at $2.00 to $2.25 per cwt., dressed weight, a year ago the same grade would sell at $1.50 to $1.75 cents per pound, or $15.00 to $17.50 per cwt.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING

The advertiser who desires to secure the best results from his advertising campaign should place his advertisement in the San Francisco Chronicle. This paper has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in California, and its readership covers every class of society. Its editorial policy is impartial and its news coverage is complete. The Chronicle is published daily except on Sundays and public holidays.

For further information regarding advertising rates and conditions, please apply to the Advertising Department of the San Francisco Chronicle, at the office mentioned below.

San Francisco Chronicle
Advertising Department
No. 100 California Street
San Francisco, Cal.

Properly Directed.

"The fact that the [Soviet] government is not only not taking any steps to improve the situation, but is actually making it worse, is a clear indication of its policy of repression and terror," said the speaker. "The Soviet government is not only not taking any steps to improve the situation, but is actually making it worse, is a clear indication of its policy of repression and terror."

11-4239 9-4-2003 4:17

